Historic house plan objection

DOZENS of people have objected to plans to transform an historic Honiton property into retirement apartments.

As previously reported in Pulman's View, Churchill Retirement Living Ltd has submitted an application to turn Holyshute House on Monkton Road into 41 apartments.

The scheme also includes plans for communal facilities and parking spaces on site.

Concerns highlighted by residents include traffic and access issues, an overdevelopment of the site and the loss of an historic property.

Geraldine Uniacke, of Langford Road, said: "Already we have trouble getting out of Langford Road and onto Monkton Road and with extra traffic from this application it will be even worse.

"Also the parking in our avenue is full, with overfill from this development it will mean us and our visitors will have nowhere to park. I also think that knocking down Holyshute House is a crime as it is part of our heritage."

Vanessa Godfrey, of Elm Terrace, said: "The sheer number of properties envisaged is akin to sardines in a tin - 41 dwellings, some with two bedrooms.

"I estimate that there will be a minimum of 60 residents at any one time, just too many souls in too small an area.

"Cars, visitors, services going in and out of the property will add to the congestion that already exists on Langford Road due to parked cars on both sides of the road. Access to Monkton Road is already difficult, particularly in the summer when cars have to wait several minutes before entering the road.

"Holyshute House is a beautiful building but it will be buried within these new sardine tins."

Muriel Mason, of Rosewell Close, added: "The proposed development would entail the demolition of valuable historic properties which could never be replaced.

"There would be a substantial increase in the volume of traffic and parking of vehicles in Langford Road and Rosewell Close due to the proposed access to the development.

"Also, it is already difficult for the existing traffic from Langford Road, Rosewell Close and Cotfield Close to turn right onto Monkton Road so increased traffic could create more problems."

The developers have said that the scheme will "create an attractive development of sheltered housing" and that the building design will "respect and enhance the character of the area".

Honiton Town Council was due to discuss the application at a planning meeting due to be held tonight.

Man rescued from vehicle

FIREFIGHTERS had to stabilise a car before freeing a man who was trapped inside.

Rescue services were called to the B3165 at Yawl, near Uplyme, just before 1pm on Saturday, November 5th.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "The crews reported that a private car was down an embankment with one male trapped."

"The vehicle was stabilised before extrication. The male was released by fire service personnel, and was conveyed to hospital by land ambulance."

Tools stolen from garage

A QUANTITY of tools have been stolen from a private garage in the Tytherleigh area.

Police say the theft took place either on November 1st, 2nd or 3rd.

Anyone with information is asked to call the force switchboard on 101. The crime reference is KA/11/492.

Sheep back

A TOTAL of five sheep reported stolen from fields in Shute and Kilmington have returned.

The sheep were reported stolen at the end of October but police say the complainant found the sheep in the fields a few days later.

DUO ESCAPE M5 HORROR Couple caught in accident

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A SEATON couple was only seconds away from the 'epicentre' of last Friday's horrific M5 accident at Taunton.

Jean and Phylip McLean were travelling northbound on the M5 when all hell broke loose — and it is possible that a recently cleaned windscreen saved their lives.

Phylip praised Jean's driving skills by saying: "It was Jean's driving experience that brought the car to a safe stop just 100ft behind the accident."

Fortunately, the car behind was also travelling slowly, so managed to avoid a collision.

But others weren't so lucky.

Phylip described the moments before the accident by saying: "We saw a lorry further up that suddenly pulled into the other lane with hazard lights on."

"A van seemed to hit something and a fireball erupted ahead. It was one hell of an explosion."

Jean and Phylip — who own The Toning Studio in Seaton and commute weekly to their Stourport-on-Severn home — stayed in the car for two to three minutes.

They then joined other motorists and emergency services personnel to try and help people.

Phylip, who is a former semi-professional wrestler, said there were fireballs all around and one police officer's high-visibility jacket started to melt.

He added: "The men and women of the emergency services put their lives on the line."

"You could hear people screaming and kids crying."

"But it [the accident] brought out the best in people, the very best of human emotions."

He explained that apart from helping the injured, those at the scene tried to make life as comfortable as possible in very trying circumstances.

Refreshments were pooled and passed around and cars with DVD players were turned into temporary cinemas to keep children occupied.

About events leading up to the accident, Phylip said: "I'm not saying it wasn't there, but I saw no fireworks or smoke."

He estimated their own speed at the time to about 50mph and added: "It was foggy and it was raining."

"Some cars flew past at 60-65mph but the car behind managed to stop because he wasn't going fast."

On the way up from Seaton, they were troubled by some dirt on the inside of the windscreen and pulled up for a short moment in Honiton to wipe it clean.

Phylip said: "If we hadn't, we would have been right in the centre of the accident."

Having had a little time to reflect, he told Pulman's View on Monday morning: "Someone was watching over us. It was just like Dante's Inferno."

They eventually made it to their Stourport home at 3.10am.

According to Avon and Somerset Constabulary, the accident involved 34 vehicles and seven people died.

A large number of people suffered injuries of varying degrees.

Missing woman, 72, is found dead

POLICE say there are no suspicious circumstances regarding the death of a 72-year-old woman in Seaton last week.

The tragic drama started in the morning of Friday, November 4th as a missing person report — and finished about an hour later when a quickly assembled search party found the woman.

A Devon and Cornwall Police spokesperson said last Friday: "At around 7.20am this morning, police received reports of a missing elderly lady, age 72, from a care home in Seaton."

"A search was quickly underway and around an hour later a body was found in water near the beach."

"The beach was quickly closed and the body was confirmed to be deceased and to be that of the missing person."

"Next of kin has been informed and police are continuing to make enquiries."

"At this time there are no suspicious circumstances."

"If anyone recalls seeing an elderly woman on the beach in Seaton early on Friday morning, please call 101 quoting police reference 112 of 4 November 2011."

A police first as they tweet live at tar barrels

OTTERY St Mary's tar barrel night has been hailed a success by organisers and police.

The annual event, which sees local members of the town's community carrying flaming barrels of tar through the town, draws in crowds from far and wide to witness the traditional spectacle.

This year, the event, always held on November 5th, fell on a Saturday and that, teamed with the dry weather, meant thousands descended to get a glimpse.

Andy Wade, Ottery St Mary Carnival president, said: "The evening went very well."

"I spent the evening in the control room and everything went as planned with very few problems."

"It was a busy night, but that is expected of a Saturday with dry weather."

Supt Glen Mayhew was leading the police on the night. He told Pulman's View that the event had gone very well with only three arrests.

He said: "The whole night ran very smoothly with no significant issues. There were three arrests, one of assault and two preventative, but overall we were really pleased with the police operation."

"We had police teams on the streets from 10am. The evening was busy but we had planned for that as it was Saturday and clear weather conditions."

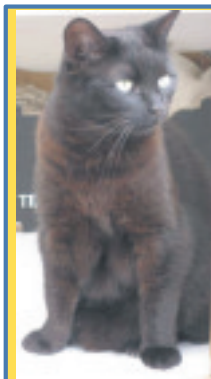

Supt Mayhew went on to tell Pulman's View that during the day and night the police had been tweeting information on social network site Twitter.

Supt Mayhew said: "This is the first event that Devon and Cornwall Police have tweeted live throughout an operation and it went really well."

"It meant that we were able to directly communicate with members of the public and closely monitor any possible issues."

"We were really pleased with how it went, it is a great opportunity to release information."

Town to vote on gym plans

RESIDENTS of Ottery St Mary will soon have the chance to vote on design ideas for a new outdoor gym that will be set up at the Land of Canaan car park.

Ottery Town Council, an Ottery resident and East Devon District Council (EDDC) have been working to bring the scheme to life.

A spokesman for EDDC said: "Last year, Ottery St Mary Town Council and EDDC asked community groups and other organisations to put forward their ideas as to how sports funding accumulated from recent Ottery housing developments, Section 106 money, should be spent.

"These ideas were then taken to residents and they got to vote on which ones they wanted to happen in Ottery. One of the winning ideas was to spend £15,000 on free-to-use outdoor gym facilities.

"A local parent proposed the idea and has been working with EDDC and the town council to research possible locations and what types of equipment could be provided."

Glyn Dobson, chairman of Ottery Town Council and a member of the steering group for the outdoor gym, said: "It's great that Ottery St Mary is getting this new free-to-use fitness facility that residents themselves have asked for.

"I would encourage everyone who lives in the parish to come and vote for which one of the outdoor gym designs they want installed."

The vote will be held on Friday, November 25th, between 5pm and 8.30pm outside Boots. Town councillors will also be asking residents to write down their ideas for improvements to the town centre.

Anyone who can't make it to the event but wants to have their say should email enquiries@otterystmary-tc.gov.uk or call into the town council offices.

PULMAN'S VIEW CAMPAIGN FIGHT FOR FENITON

I was gagged, says councillor in new LDF row

AN Ottery town and district councillor claims he was barred from speaking during the latest meeting of the East Devon District Council (EDDC) Local Development Framework (LDF) Panel.

Roger Giles, Ottery town and district councillor, who attended the meeting on Tuesday, November 1st, had wanted to speak about housing provision for Ottery St Mary.

As previously reported in Pulman's View, the LDF Panel has been looking at and planning for development across east Devon over the next 15 years. It is expected to include plans for almost 16,000 homes and business premises.

Mr Giles said: "At the meeting on October 4th I justifiably complained about the very rushed and inadequate discussion of Ottery. I complained that Ottery St Mary Town Council's view that there should be no more than 300 houses in Ottery had been ignored."

Mr Giles believes that his complaining at the October 4th meeting led to him being gagged by the chairman of the LDF Panel, councillor Mike Allen.

He added: "Because of my very justified complaints, the chairman unilaterally decided that Ottery's future should be debated (at the November 1st meeting) without an elected Ottery representative being able to participate.

"Ottery people elected two district councillors this year – David Cox and myself. I have consulted Ottery people assiduously about the LDF process over the last few months, and hoped to represent their desires, concerns and aspirations at the meeting on November 1st.

"Councillor Allen, because of his autocratic decision, denied the people of Ottery their voice through their elected representative. He has seriously interfered with the democratic processes."

In a statement sent to Pulman's View, Mr Allen said: "Claire Wright and David Cox made the Ottery voice heard and I voted with Claire to support the Ottery Town Council's suggestions but the vote was lost to the majority decision.

"Councillor Giles is subject to a complaint to the Standards Committee for his behaviour regarding the LDF Panel which he has been ejected from three times for shouting and disrupting the meeting."

Rescue drama

◆ A POLICE officer and members of the public caring for the victim last week

MEMBERS of the public who helped rescue an elderly man from a river have been praised by police.

Officers were called to Westford Mill, near Tatworth, at about 1pm on Tuesday, November 1st.

The carer of a 69-year-old man raised the alarm after the pensioner apparently jumped into the River Axe.

Police officers from Devon, Cornwall and Dorset were at the scene along with ambulance personnel.

The coastguard also sent units, which were stood down just before they reached the scene.

The Devon and Cornwall Police helicopter was dispatched and a spokesman for the force's air operations unit said: "The helicopter arrived on the scene within minutes and quickly located a member of the public attending to the male who had been dragged out of the water.

"Being unable to land due to the terrain, railway and power lines, the helicopter crew guided in more police resources to the location which was hidden from the road by heavy undergrowth.

"The male was not seriously injured, albeit very cold. He was taken to hospital for treatment.

"Although not equipped with a winch, the police helicopter carries equipment to help at water-based incidents, including a 20-metre throwline and a rescue egg that can be dropped from the aircraft and inflates into a lifesaving buoyancy aid on contact with water.

"Our thanks goes out to those members of the public who got involved and assisted with the care of the man."

A coastguard spokesperson said: "Devon and Cornwall Police called to request assistance following a call from the carer of a 69-year-old male who had jumped in the river.

"Coastguard Helicopter Rescue-106 was scrambled and Lyme Regis Coastguard rescue officers were tasked to proceed.

"As the units were proceeding, the police reported that the male had been recovered safe from the water and that an ambulance was attending.

"The units were stood down."

TV star? A piece of cake for Jenny

HOBBY BAKER TURNS PRO AFTER CHANNEL 4 SHOW

A HOBBY cakemaker turned professional after winning a competition and being filmed for a national television show.

Jenny Lidster, from Farway, enjoyed making cakes for friends and family for years, but never entered competitions despite her obvious talent.

But she decided to have a go at this year's Devon County Show by entering the Afternoon Tea category with a combination of strawberry and white chocolate cupcakes.

She won and has never looked back. Channel 4's Kirstie's Handmade Britain happened to be filming at the county show. And Jenny made such an impact that she found the TV show's camera crew in her home a few weeks later.

The episode aired on Wednesday, October 19th, putting Jenny in the national spotlight.

The show's anchor, Kirstie Allsopp, told viewers that "competition is about being placed" – the bit about the importance of taking part is what you tell the kids.

When asked if that is the case, Jenny told Pulman's View: "I'd say the same.

"I went into it for a bit of fun but really everybody wants to win."

◆ JENNY with that first-prize rosette from the Devon County Show

She has put a bit of pressure on herself by entering a competition in Cornwall this month, which will be filmed for a Christmas episode of the same show.

Jenny, who is again aiming for top spot, said: "I've got to keep up the standards."

Since winning at the Devon County Show, she has set up a business called

The Farway Cake Fairy.

Those who missed her television appearance can watch it online by following the relevant link at www.thefarwaycakefairy.co.uk

Fundraiser quiz night

A FUNDRAISING quiz in aid of Hospiscare will take place at West Hill Village Hall on Friday, November 11th.

The event is being organised by Ottery Inner Wheel Club and starts at 7pm.

To book a table call 01395 232518.

Recruits are welcomed

BEER Scout Group has welcomed five new members to its troop.

The new members were invested into the group on October 31st, in front of friends and family members.

During the evening pumpkin carving took place and the group has also scheduled new activities and skills for the next year.

'Comedy film of year'

SOME critics called Bridesmaids the funniest film of 2011, so why not get along to the Beer Film Society for a good laugh next Monday (November 14th).

The film is being screened at Steamers Restaurant in Beer. Doors open at 7pm for a 7.30pm start and tickets cost £5 or £4 for members.

Water heater catches fire

A WATER heater on premises at Finnimore Industrial Estate, Ottery St Mary, caught fire in the morning of Saturday, November 5th.

It was a small fire, which was out before firefighters arrived.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "Appliances from Ottery, Honiton and Sidmouth were mobilised.

"The crews found that there had been a small fire in a water heater which was out before their arrival.

"The area was inspected to ensure that everything was safe."

Police report eight crimes in town in month

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

COLYTON was the scene of eight crimes in October, according to figures released by police.

Overnight on Thursday, October 6th, a barn was broken into and a chainsaw worth £800 stolen.

Sometime between the beginning of September and Sunday, October 9th, a woman was being harassed by a number of phone calls.

The memorial bench in the memorial gardens was damaged overnight between Saturday, October 15th, and Sunday, October 16th.

A boundary fence at the Peace Memorial Playing Fields was damaged overnight on Monday, October 17th.

Sometime between Tuesday, October 18th, and Wednesday, October 19th, a padlock was damaged on an outbuilding to the north of Colyton. Entry was gained but nothing was stolen.

Another outbuilding was damaged on Wednesday, October 19th, but again nothing was stolen.

Overnight between Thursday, October 20th, and Friday, October 21st, damage was caused to the toilet block at the Peace Memorial Playing Fields.

In Branscombe one crime was recorded. On Wednesday, October 26th, a pair of £400 Calvin Klein prescription sunglasses were stolen from the Masons Arms pub.

A property at Rousdon and Combyne was broken into on Monday, October 3rd. Nothing was stolen.

Two offences were recorded in Southleigh last month, both happening on the same day and at the same place – Blackberry Camp on Friday, October 28th.

The rear window of a Vauxhall Corsa was smashed and a rucksack was stolen. A Vauxhall Zafira was also broken into, but nothing was stolen.

No offences were recorded in Axmouth, Beer, Farway or Northleigh.

PC Steve Speariett, of Seaton police, said: "Although crime has increased this month, October is still below the long-term average of 14 crimes for the month.

"Once again there have been two thefts from motor vehicles, this time at Blackberry Camp.

Please ensure that any valuables are locked away out of sight or if possible do not leave them in your vehicle.

"If you do see any suspicious vehicles or people, try to safely record as much detail as possible and call the police straightaway.

"Colyton has seen an increase in crime with three reports of minor criminal damage.

"Again if you see any groups or individuals causing damage or behaving in an anti-social manner please call it in at the time.

"Colyton also saw a number of outbuildings broken into. I would like to remind you all to record the details of valuable equipment and to report any suspicious activity, calling 999 when appropriate.

"The neighbourhood team also have the facility to permanently mark tools and equipment. If you require this service please contact us.

"There were no reports of anti-social behaviour on Hallowe'en and the neighbourhood team would like to thank all those involved for behaving responsibly and respecting your community."

Anyone with information about any of the offences should contact Seaton police on 101 or email seaton@devonandcornwall.pnn.police.uk. Alternatively call Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Waitrose shoppers donate generously

◆ BEN Pointing (Waitrose) presenting the charity cheque to Julia Roebuck and her son Alexander

A FORMER deputy mayor of Seaton has praised a charity and its backers.

Julia Roebuck enlisted the help of Snackpack when her son was diagnosed with Type 1 Diabetes.

She recently accompanied representatives of the charity for a cheque presentation at the Sidmouth branch of Waitrose.

Julia said: "I had to quit being deputy mayor of Seaton last year after my 11-month-old baby was diagnosed with Type 1 Diabetes and Snackpack has helped me and my family adjust to having this very difficult disease.

"Snackpack won the monthly vote at Waitrose where shoppers choose a local charity to which to donate tokens received from shopping in the store.

"Snackpack had the most votes any charity has ever had so far and received £510.

"I accepted the cheque on behalf of Snackpack, the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital area support group for families who have a child with Type 1 Diabetes, an auto-immune disease where the body's immune system attacks the pancreas and kills off the cells that produce insulin.

"Ellen and Barrie Bradburn, who run Snackpack, were also there with me.

"Snackpack has been a great help to me and my family since his diagnosis.

"They give telephone support to help families come to terms with diagnosis and living with Type 1 Diabetes and arrange trips and weekend adventure weekends for children with diabetes so they can meet other children in the same situation."

More information about the charity is available online at www.snackpack.org.uk.

Bid for six new homes

AN application to build six homes in an east Devon village has been submitted to East Devon District Council (EDDC).

Jameson Homes Ltd has submitted a plan to build the houses on land opposite an area known as Sopers Cottage in Chardstock.

Three of the houses would have three bedrooms with the remaining three properties having four or more bedrooms.

EDDC is expected to make a decision in the near future.

Village history

HAWKCHURCH History Society held a history evening in Hawkchurch Village Hall on Monday, November 7th.

On display was a selection of material dating back to 13th and 14th century Hawkchurch, when the parish and village was split between the estates of the Abbots of Cerne and Abbotsbury.

Material from the 19th and 20th centuries was also on display.

MP Neil a rebel in big EU ballot

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@hindlenews.co.uk

AN east Devon MP has voted against his party in a Commons debate.

Neil Parish, Tory MP for the Tiverton and Honiton constituency, was one of 111 MPs to vote for a referendum on European Union (EU) membership.

However, the motion was defeated with 483 MPs voting not to call a referendum.

In a statement sent to Pulman's

View, Mr Parish said: "I voted on the debate for a national referendum on our relationship with the European Union because I believe that we have to do more than simply stop more powers going to Brussels. We need to take powers back."

"The EU is over-burdening the UK with costly redtape and is attempting to legislate in areas that are better decided by the democratically elected governments of the individual member states."

"This Government is rightly concentrating on the most pressing challenges this country faces — namely dealing with our huge budget deficit and growing our economy."

"However, I do not believe that debate on the issues that matter to people should be excluded because of this."

"The debate on whether we should hold a referendum on our relationship with the European Union came about because of a 100,000-strong petition and was non-binding on the Government."

"The people wanted us to have a free and open debate on the subject and I believe it was a mistake for all three main political parties to hold a three-line whip — an instruction given to Members of Parliament by the leaders of their party telling them they must vote in the way that the party wants them to — on this vote."

The issue was forced into the House after a petition was signed by more than 100,000 people.

The petition called for a referendum on whether the UK should stay in the EU, leave it or renegotiate its membership.

EDDC gets faster with its replies

EAST Devon District Council (EDDC) has improved and came agonisingly close to meeting a target set by the Local Government Ombudsman (LGO).

It was last year that the LGO attacked EDDC's ability to deal with complaint inquiries in a timely fashion.

In its annual review for 2009/10, LGO said the average response time was 49.4 days, well beyond the 28 LGO target.

A glaring example of 116 days was mentioned, but a year later the situation has improved.

In the annual review for 2010/11 LGO says the average response time for its inquiries to EDDC has been trimmed down to 29.3 days.

Easier to get parking permit for residents

GETTING a resident's parking permit has been made quicker and easier, according to Devon County Council.

From November 1st, it is possible to apply online or over the phone, and have the permit posted to your home address for the first time.

Sidmouth Councillor Stuart Hughes said: "Arranging to park your car near your home should be made as quick and painless as possible and this system will do that."

"It is much more convenient for residents to apply for their permits from the comfort of their own home whenever they want, rather than having to spend time travelling to and from and queuing at their local council offices at a time that suits the council."

More information is available online at www.devon.gov.uk/parkingpermits or by calling the council's customer service centre on 0345 1551073

Pair up for tourism prize

TWO east Devon businesses have been nominated in the Devon Tourism Awards 2011.

Hembury Court, Broadhembury, was nominated in the Self Catering Establishment of the Year category with Hedgehog Corner Guest Accommodation, Axminster, nominated in the Bed and Breakfast and Guest Accommodation of the Year category.

Rosie Bates, general manager of Visit Devon, said: "We were pleased to have so many excellent businesses vying for awards in their respective categories. It demonstrates the high quality of tourism businesses that we have here in Devon for our visitors to enjoy."

The awards ceremony will take place at Sandy Park, Exeter, on Wednesday, November 23rd.

Gold scoop

A DAIRY business based in Monkton, near Honiton, has scooped a prestigious award at this year's Taste of the West Awards.

Otter Valley Dairy picked up the Best Ice Cream and Sorbet of the Year award.

This prize completes a successful year for the ice cream makers who have previously won gold at Taste of the West and also two gold stars at the Great Taste Awards.

Rebecca Bond, a partner at the dairy, said: "It was a lovely surprise, we are so very proud of our achievement as a small family business in only our second year."

Otter Valley Dairy is now selling pots of ice cream from its new festive range. For more information visit www.ottervalleydairy.co.uk.

Julie opens kiosk at town's station

A NEW addition has been added to the platform at Honiton Train Station.

The Otter Halt is a takeaway kiosk and has been set up by Broadhembury resident Julie Rae.

Julie trained as a chef at Exeter College and has been in catering for most of her working life.

Her family also run a successful removal company in the town.

Speaking to Pulman's View, Julie said: "I was sat at the station waiting for somebody one New Year's Eve and saw that a retail unit was available for let on the platform."

"Over the new year I started chatting to my family and the idea of setting up a little cafe at the station was born and I thought it would be something that I would love to do."

"I rang up South West Trains and was so pleased when they decided to let me, somebody who is independent, have the space instead of one of the big boys like Marks and Spencer or Starbucks."

"The cafe at the station is something that Honiton has needed for a long time."

Most of the food is locally sourced and Julie says she will always listen to what the customer wants.

The Otter Halt was officially opened on Tuesday, November 1st. But it did have a trial run during the school half term week at the end of October.

Opening times at the moment are 6am until 2pm in the week and 8am until 1pm on Saturday.

Julie said: "It is all trial and error at the moment. I have had really good comments from customers and a lot of people have said that something like this has been a long time coming."

"I know coming out of a recession might not be the best time to start a business but I am hoping that things can only get better from here."

Items on offer at the cafe include hot and cold drinks, sandwiches, cakes, pasties, bacon rolls, crisps, fruit and chocolate bars.

There are also plans to create a seating area at the kiosk and possibly a sandwich run in and around Honiton. Julie added that she hopes to create at least one part time job.

DIY company is named as finalist

AN Ottery St Mary company has been named as a finalist in the UK Hardware Retailer of the Year category at the DIY Week Retail Awards.

Abbotts DIY has stores in Jesu Street, Ottery, and Harepath Road, Seaton.

The company was nominated by one of their suppliers and has beaten off competition from hundreds of other independent DIY stores from across the UK to reach the finals of the competition.

To be in with a chance of winning Abbotts must show exceptional customer service, product knowledge and training programs as well as offering their customers value for money.

Tony Abbott, owner of the business, said: "We were absolutely thrilled to bits to be nominated for such a prestigious award in the first place, but to be in the final is just fantastic."

"When you think of how many independent DIY stores there are up and down the country, just to be nominated in the top four is just a huge achievement."

"It's testament to all the hard work put in from all the family and staff at Abbotts, but most importantly all our customers. Without them we wouldn't be here at all."

The winner is set to be announced at an awards dinner in Manchester on Friday, November 25th.

YOUR LETTER COULD WIN £10 VOUCHERto spend at Archway Bookshop, Axminster
~ As chosen by Pulman's View ~Call foul on dog-owner

EDITOR — An inconsiderate person with no concern for the welfare of children is persistently allowing his or her dog to foul a path along Chard Road, Axminster.

Not only is this illegal and disgusting but children walking to school tread in the mess and transport it to school, where all are exposed to the risk of picking up diseases carried in dog faeces.

I would like to suggest that if anyone can photograph the dog and owner in the act that they send the picture to Pulman's View to name and shame the person responsible and lead to securing a conviction.

Name and address supplied

Anyone find my ring?

EDITOR — I lost my engagement ring while in Axminster on Saturday, October 29th, between 9pm and 3am.

I would like to appeal for anyone who may have picked it up or found it to return it to myself or to the local police station.

As you can imagine, I am devastated that it's lost because of the sentimental value.

Store turns out to be bigger than expected

EDITOR — Mr Konokpa (Pulman's View letters edition November 1st) should thank his lucky stars that he lives in Ottery St Mary and not Seaton.

Here we are getting a Tesco around three times the size of Ottery's Sainsbury's, with not only a butcher and a baker and a fishmonger but also a takeaway, pharmacy and Costa Coffee, not to mention a 'click and collect' facility.

Brilliant no doubt for those who enjoy 'one-stop' shopping but the death knell for many local businesses.

Not to mention all those people coming by car from other areas having clicked and then collecting and returning home immediately, putting nothing into the local community.

Also, I was at an East Devon District Council (EDDC) Local Development Framework Panel meeting on November 1st where it transpires that rather than 450 or 630 homes being built on the rest of the Tesco land — it depends which EDDC documents you read — it will now be 290.

Why? As Mrs Little, head of economy at EDDC, explained: "It's because the store is bigger than expected — bigger than who expected?"

I knew it was going to be this big, surely EDDC's planners knew too.

So, remember all those affordable homes that we were going to get as our sweetener — 40 per cent of 400 or 630 — you just wait and see how many of the 290 are affordable.

Last, but not least, remember all those jobs that local people were promised?

Well, the Tesco website had only "flexible hours, part-time counter assistant" jobs advertised — and that's flexible as in "you tell us what hours you will be on call for and we will tell you if we want you".

Where were the others — accounts, personnel, supervisors, whatever? You tell me.

Seafront was kind of a joke, it seems

EDITOR — At last I think I have found an explanation for the state of our seafront — it was meant as a joke.

I read with interest recently that Stuart Hughes is one of Devon's most colourful characters and that he was once the leading light of the Monster Raving Loony party.

I love having colourful people around and thank goodness for the likes of Monster Raving Loony parties but in view of the debacle of our parking meters, the most annoying change in the direction of the traffic flow and the state of the surface of our road along the seafront.

I do wonder that such a person is adequately qualified to be in charge of highways and transportation.

Cavalier attitude of town drivers

EDITOR — I write as a pedestrian who frequently visits Axminster.

May I draw the attention of your readers to the cavalier and thoughtless driving habits of some motorists in your town centre?

Now, we are all aware that Axminster's narrow and twisting streets were designed with horses and carts rather than giant trucks in mind, but certain drivers appear transparently unaware of this fact.

I stress that the huge majority of motorists display only restraint and respect on these streets, but occasionally I have witnessed the most reckless and irresponsible disregard for other road-users and the Highway Code.

Only the other day I watched in stunned disbelief as a huge truck mounted the pavement in West Street, forcing a young mum with an occupied pushchair to retreat into a shop doorway to avoid its mighty wheels.

If the worst had happened, what would have been the driver's response?

I was late for a delivery? I was tired after hours on the motorway? It's not my fault. Your streets are too narrow?

The lesson from this and other incidents like it is as important as it is obvious. Towns such as this demand extra special care and respect from all of those behind the wheel.

The alternative is too frightening to contemplate.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

THE Revd Judith Roberts writes this week from Chardstock. She said: "The Christian church has always struggled to know how to relate to the world around it.

"In its early days, the issues were whether it was all right to eat meat that had been offered to idols, or whether new believers had to be circumcised. In these months of the year, Christians in Britain in 2011 face other issues – amongst them, how to relate to Hallowe'en?"

"How to keep Christmas as a Christian celebration and not too commercial? How to respond to tents pitched at the doors of a cathedral and the voices of those calling for institutional change?"

"The particulars may be different, but the central question is the same: how do Christians live out their faith in the world in the way Jesus desires?"

"The Church of England can count among its strengths a capacity to see issues from various viewpoints, but there comes a time when it is essential to speak out in opposition to greed, injustice and unrighteousness, or to go as far as resigning when it seems that a passionate conviction of justice is not informing the decisions of the church. It is also essential to keep the doors of constructive dialogue open. What does Jesus desire? That Christians are salt and light, engaging well with the world as it is.

"The Old Testament prophet Micah offers some challenging guidance: 'What does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God' (Mic.6: 8). Relating to our neighbours, then, means justice, loving mercy and humility. May God help us."

Former pupils of Allhallows School, founded at Honiton in the 16th Century, returned to the original site on Saturday, November 5th for the annual memorial service in St Paul's Church.

St Paul's was built on the site of the former chapel of ease and used by the school, but was later replaced by the school chapel on an adjoining site — now the Honiton museum.

As is the custom, the names of recently departed members of the school were read out at the service. The lessons were read by the Mayor of Honiton and a member of Allhallows Trustees.

Author Trevor Beeson, former Canon of Westminster Abbey and Dean of Winchester publishes a new book this month titled Women's Ministry The Church's Other Half, in which he reflects that although women constitute at least half of the church's membership, for almost 2,000 years they have been excluded from any major part in church leadership — offer price £17.99

The Friends of St Michael's, Colyford, annual market coffee morning and lunch will be held on Saturday, November 12th. Colyton Methodist Church has A Sing-along-with Neville at the church hall on Thursday, November 17th at 2.30pm. The Freedom Café at St Gregory's Seaton is on Saturday, November 19th.

Members asked to identify jewellery

AT their October meeting members of Honiton Afternoon WI spent an interesting and entertaining afternoon learning about antiques and old jewellery from their guest speaker, Mr Whitton.

Various small items were passed around members for them to identify and guess the value.

Some of these were soon recognised, such as a Clarice Cliff salt cellar, a Staffordshire blackbird pie funnel, a button stick and a piece of jet jewellery.

At the end of the meeting members were able to seek Mr Whitton's advice about their own personal items of old jewellery.

The next meeting will be on Monday, November 14th, at 2pm, at the Methodist Chapel, when the annual meeting will be held.

Tablers gear up for 2012

HONITON Round Table is already gearing up for 2012 by opening its doors to new members in the run-up to its busiest season.

As men across England put away the barbecues, golf clubs and football boots, the organisation is firing up an early recruitment drive to give locals a new way to spend the winter months.

Whether they are organising major firework displays, working with BBC Children in Need or simply arranging a seriously big Christmas party, Round Tablers know how to brighten up those long, dark days.

Jason Thomson, vice president of Round Table, said: "With children back at school, adults returning to work after the holidays, and many sports seasons drawing to a close, history shows that men typically look for new social activities during the winter months.

"As we've experienced a rather short summer this year, we're kicking off our recruitment drive early to combat the lower temperatures and shorter days scuppering the after-work plans of many blokes."

Round Table offers a wide range of social and sporting activities, often on a week night, such as go-karting, abseiling, shooting and tractor racing.

To make it easier for men to find out more about getting involved with their local table, the organisation has also released a dedicated new members' contact to help with the process, join@roundtable.co.uk.

To find out more about Honiton Round Table, including how to join, email join@roundtable.org.uk or visit www.roundtable.co.uk/findoutmore.

Watch this space – it is sure to grow bigger

HINDSIGHT is a great thing, they say, but it would be a lot more useful if it happened before the event:

"Why didn't we do this before?" was the question on most lips after the October session of Jurassic Folk & Acoustic.

So what was the "this"?

Well, for the four plus years that it has been running at the Grove Nite Club, Jurassic has used the small bar area to stage its performances, but this has been getting more and more uncomfortable as the numbers of performers and audience have grown, with many people going away when they couldn't find a seat.

Something had to be done, so the organisers thought it was time to see if using one of the bigger halls would work, risking losing the cosy atmosphere of the little bar.

On the night, a bevy of helpers arrived early to help set up tables and chairs, only to find that Ivor, a faithful regular known as Mr Chairman, had already done it perfectly.

Doubts were quickly put aside as the new venue ticked all the boxes – atmosphere, acoustics, comfort...the lot.

A great evening followed with sterling contributions from the usual suspects, Ted Dowse, Frances, Anita and Fran, Adrian, Mike Gee, Ben, Annie, old Uncle Peter Arnold and all. Graham, without his Morris side, sang the odd song, and the Amycrofters, cashing in on the success last month of the dancing doll Sam, who had recruited a mate for him named Sandy; their performance together would surely have won over the hardest hearted of Come Dancing judges.

With this super arena at their disposal, Jurassic has been formulating ambitious plans for next year, so watch this space.

Before then, the next session is on Wednesday November 16th, 8.15pm prompt at the Grove, Seaton, free admission and everyone, but everyone, is invited to come and participate in the new found luxury. More details from 01297 20064.

Just too early for full annual autumn colours show

ON October 20th, a beautiful sunny morning, a coachful of members and guests left Buckland St Mary Village Hall for their annual whole-day outing, this year to the Westonbirt Arboretum.

Were they too early or too late for Westonbirt's autumn spectacular?

Members had an enjoyable time walking around the extensive grounds on well maintained pathways looking at a fantastic collection of different trees. Most of them agreed that they were a little early, but, while some trees had not yet coloured, a lot of the acers were fantastic in the sunshine.

Many members returned home with small acers to bring more colour to the Yarty valley in future.

The next meeting will be on November 17th at 7.30pm in Buckland St Mary Village Hall.

BEARNES & HAMPTON LITTLEWOOD
AUCTIONEERS AND VALUERS

LYME Regis Museum curator Mary Godwin has announced her resignation.

She is leaving the museum to take up a new post with the Arts Council in Exeter on January 9th.

Chairman of museum trustees Stephen Locke said: "During the three years Mary has been with us, she has made a huge contribution to the success of the museum, both in its increased prestige and number of visitors.

"We are very sorry to see her go and wish her every success in her new post.

"In replacing Mary as quickly as possible we will work closely with staff and volunteers to ensure that the museum's vibrant and active role in Lyme continues, and with our programme of events, exhibitions and activities inside the museum, and out in schools and the community, as well as our strong tradition of research begun by John Fowles.

"We are, of course, committed to pursuing our big plans for the museum extension, especially now that we have the support of the town council for a lease on the land."

Mary confirmed that she will keep a professional interest in the museum and said: "Moving jobs has been a really difficult decision for me as I have so enjoyed working in Lyme and being a part of this wonderful community.

"But I won't be severing links with the museum completely as a major part of my new role is to lead the Arts Council's work with museums across the South West, including Dorset."

Tree of Light appeal launch for Christmas

HOSPISCARE has launched its annual Tree of Light appeal, which offers families a chance to remember their loved-ones in a special way in the run-up to Christmas.

The appeal invites friends and relatives to dedicate a light on a tree outside Exeter Cathedral in memory of someone they have lost.

Names are also recorded in a book of memories, which will be on display at a series of services across Exeter, mid and east Devon.

The Axminster service is at 7pm on Thursday, November 24th at St Mary the Virgin Church, the Ottery St Mary service is at 7pm on Monday, December 5th at the Parish Church of St Mary, and the Honiton service is on Wednesday, December 7th in St Paul's Church at 7pm.

"This appeal has become very special for our charity," said Glynis Atherton, Hospiscare's chief executive.

"So many people tell us that attending one of our services means a great deal to their family – offering a special place to remember someone at a very important time of year."

Full details of all the services can also be found at Hospiscare charity shops and at www.hospiscare.co.uk.

Dedications can be made until November 21st online or by calling 01392 688020.

Village set to remember lost

AN east Devon village is set to hold an exhibition to coincide with Remembrance Sunday.

Thirty nine men and one woman from Beer were killed in the two world wars and they, along with those who served and returned, will be remembered in the exhibition set to be held at the Congregational Hall on Fore Street.

The exhibition will run from Friday, November 11th until Sunday, November 13th and will be open from 11am until 5pm on Friday and Saturday and from 12noon until 5pm on the Sunday.

Admission is free but a donation in aid of the Royal British Legion Poppy Fund would be welcome.

As part of the exhibition two new names have been added to the village war memorial.

TONY JACKSON

Wildlife man to give a talk

A CONTRIBUTOR to the Axe Estuary Birds newsletter, Tim Frost, reports a curious incident with a sparrowhawk.

Sitting in his car at Beer Head he and his wife were watching about 30 pied wagtails when a sparrowhawk dashed at them.

However, far from being scared off, the birds mobbed the hawk en masse until it flew off minus its breakfast!

The estuary has also enjoyed the presence of a Greenland whitefronted goose, whilst a cattle egret has appeared amongst the resident little egrets, an avocet was seen on the river at Black Hole Marsh and a short-eared owl spotted on the cliffs east of Budleigh Salterton.

Sadly, however, some mindless idiot(s) has damaged the Seaton marshes hide by setting it on fire and, as the floor has now been judged to be unsafe, the hide is closed to visitors until repairs have been effected. What is the matter with people?

What's happening in the Blackdown Hills? Well, judging by the events programme organised by the AONB team enough to keep everyone well occupied until Christmas and beyond!

There are courses on hedge laying, map reading for beginners, how to coppice hazel and ash, make willow Christmas decorations, help in habitat management on a butterfly conservation reserve, learn how to plant trees, make hedgerow baskets or hazel hurdles... the list of activities connected to the countryside and the Blackdown Hills is endless, but you could start on November 12th by enjoying a five-mile circular walk, mainly through fields and woods, starting from Combe St Nicholas.

For full details of the winter programme call 01823 680681 or email blackdownhills@devon.org.uk.

The well-known wildlife filmmaker Simon King, patron of Dorset Wildlife Trust's 50th Anniversary, and who filmed his last BBC Springwatch in Dorset last year, will be giving a talk Nature on your Doorstep in Sherborne on Saturday, December 14th.

Renowned as an award-winning filmmaker and known for Big Cat Diary, Simon King's Year in Shetland and the Springwatch and Autumnwatch films, Simon is also president of The Wildlife Trusts. Last year he was awarded an OBE for his work.

His talk will be held at the Digby Hall, Hound Street, Sherborne and tickets cost £10 for adults and £5 for children, with proceeds in aid of DWT's anniversary fund to help protect the county's wildlife for the next 50 years.

There are also a limited number of VIP tickets at £25, to include a post-talk reception with Simon King. To book call DWT on 01305 264620 or visit Sherborne Tourist Information Centre.

Meanwhile, on the home front the astonishingly mild October weather has deceived some flowers into a false assumption that spring is here. I currently have a dozen wallflowers in full bloom, the rose bushes are still producing buds, fresh young nettles are sprouting and the grass appears to be still flourishing.

I even saw a woodpigeon carrying a twig in its beak! However, I have little doubt that by the time this column appears we may be in the throes of a cold snap.

Perhaps the most significant factor this year has been the disappearance of once common garden bird life. I have seen no great tits or blue tits for months and the only birds which still come to the bird feeders are sparrows by the dozen, the odd hedge accentor and robin, while an occasional blackbird puts in an appearance.

Goldfinches still cluster round the feeders holding thistle seed, and the only other birds are sparrowhawks, magpies, jackdaws and crows. No song thrushes, no greenfinches or chaffinches. What has happened?

I am only too happy to see sparrows but some variety would be greatly appreciated.

OUT & ABOUT

● THE Lyme Lunge 2012 is the fourth such event to be organised by the Rotary Club of Lyme Regis.

The event, which starts at 1pm on January 1st, promises to be bigger and more exciting than ever.

The 2011 Lunge was a fabulous event with around 100 fancy-dress Lungers rushing into the balmy waters of Lyme Bay.

If you're not up to a dip in the sea in the middle of winter, come along anyway and enjoy the New Year's Day pre-dinner fun, chill out and cheer the Lungers and enjoy the party atmosphere on the beach.

Last year well over 1,500 people gathered on the beach to witness the fun and the collection raised over £1,400 for charity.

This year the charities to benefit will be ShelterBox and the RNLI. It is expected that a ShelterBox and the equipment that goes with it will be on display.

Hot soup for the Lungers will be available after they come out of the water. Sponsorship forms can be downloaded from www.lymerotary.org. Just click on the Lyme Lunge link. Your sponsorship can be for the two charities above or for a charity of your choice.

Surprising bear hunt is perfect Christmas treat

DON'T miss the perfect Christmas treat, as We're Going on a Bear Hunt comes to Exeter Northcott Theatre from Thursday, December 8th to Sunday, January 1st.

Michael Rosen's award-winning book is brought vividly and noisily to the stage in director Sally Cookson's fun-filled adaptation set to Benji Bower's lively versatile score.

Join our intrepid adventurers on their quest to find a bear; as they wade through the gigantic swishy swashy grass, the splashy splashy river and the thick oozy, squelchy mud! What a surprise awaits you on the other side of the dark forest.

Expect catchy songs, interactive scenes and plenty of hands-on adventure — plus a few special surprises.

Cookson describes the production as a "celebration of play", deciding with set designer Katie Sykes that the show should utilise a host of everyday objects and materials in order to draw young audiences into this thrilling, imaginary world. Full of rhythm, repetition and onomatopoeia, the show has been praised for its ability to engage and entertain young children of all learning abilities.

Tickets for We're Going on a Bear Hunt cost £10 and are now on sale. Call the Exeter Northcott Theatre box office on 01392 493493, or choose your seats online at www.exeternorthcott.co.uk.

The album was recorded at the Morwellham Quay in Devon in the workshops there and even down one of the mines.

IN TIME (12A)

NEW Zealand-born screenwriter Andrew Niccol has consistently conjured dark clouds with his sombre visions of life in the 21st century and beyond.

His debut feature Gattaca, starring Ethan Hawke and Uma Thurman, cast a chill with its depiction of a society determined by genetic superiority.

Niccol deservedly won an Oscar for The Truman Show, which took the concept of a Big Brother reality TV series to chilling extremes, and then he suggested that troublesome Hollywood stars could be replaced by digital actors in the comedy S1m0ne.

For his latest film, which he also directs, Niccol imagines an emotionally starved globe in which money has become obsolete and the currency is time.

People are engineered to age until they reach 25, then a timer, embedded in their arm, begins to tick down second by second to their demise.

You can earn, steal or inherit more time to extend your life expectancy, leading to a vast divide between the haves and have-nots.

The wealthy are essentially immortal – forever 25 years old in physical appearance, with centuries on their body clocks to squander at leisure.

Meanwhile, the poor literally live from one day to the next, unsure if they will be able to claw back enough minutes to see another sunrise.

Will Salas (Justin Timberlake) lives in the ghetto with his mother (Olivia Wilde), making ends meet by working at a factory with his best friend Borel (Johnny Galecki).

During a night out, Will has a chance encounter with handsome yet suicidal rich man Henry Hamilton (Matt Bomer).

Granted access to the most exclusive parts of the city, Will learns the truth about how Philippe Weis (Vincent Kartheiser) and the men in power manipulate the populace for their own gain.

Will vows to bring down the corrupt system, forging an unlikely alliance with Philippe's rebellious daughter Sylvia (Amanda Seyfried).

Meanwhile, time thief Fortis (Alex Pettyfer) and timekeeper Raymond Leon (Cillian Murphy) both hunt for Will, determined to take back the time that Henry gave away.

In Time is a neat concept, stylishly executed, with some well-orchestrated action sequences to paper over a few cracks in Niccol's logic.

Kartheiser and Pettyfer are two-dimensional villains but Murphy brings depth to his hunter, who takes his role very seriously and will not allow Will to upset the status quo.

Niccol's film holds our interest, building to a satisfying if improbable close that ensures we don't feel as if we have wasted 109 minutes.

OUT & ABOUT

● AUDIENCE feedback is one of the most important things for an artist. In the past they had to leave Exeter and look elsewhere for such support but now SCRATCH is stepping up and giving artists in the city what they need.

SCRATCH is a program taking place every Sunday in November. Sixteen pieces have been picked to be shown over the month, ranging from dance, stand-up, new writing, devise, comedy sketches and music.

The audience is invited to be a part of the action by providing feedback to every piece they see. The event will start at 7.30pm on November 13th, 20th and 27th at The Bike Shed, Exeter, and costs £3 to enter. Go to www.theatredevon.net for more information.

● COMEDIAN Mitch Benn will perform at Exeter's Northcott Theatre on Sunday, November 20th as part of his Ode Warrior tour. ● A PIANO recital in aid of the Phoenix-India charity will be held at the Minster Church in Axminster on Friday, November 18th. American pianist and winner of the Gershwin Foundation Prize Shuann Chai will perform at 7.30pm.

● DEADLY Nightcap, by Francis Durbridge and set in the 1980s, will be performed by Seaton Drama Group in Seaton Town Hall from Thursday to Saturday November 17th to 19th at 7.30pm. Tickets are available from the town hall box office or on 01297 625699.

Charity rock musical flies high

THE cast and crew of Biggles Flies Undone were flying high after their hugely successful three-night stint in the Guildhall Axminster, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 3rd-5th. The comedy rock musical written by awarding winning song writer Steve Black was met with laughter and applause by a packed audience on all three nights. The story took place just after WWI and followed Captain James Bigglesworth, played by Ian Styles, who after starting his own airline company, 'Biggles Airways', was approached by the bods from the ministry and coerced into finding a missing scientist who had developed a new propellant. If his invention had fallen into the wrong hands it could have started a new war, but luckily Biggles was there to save the day.

The musical was written in conjunction with One Night Only a charity organisation set up to raise money for Hospiscare, to which all profits from the show will be donated. Organiser of 'One Night Only' Karen Bostock was thrilled to report that since its first show in 2009, and with the help of Biggles, the organisation has now raised a grand total of approximately £18,000. Karen said 'I couldn't be more pleased with how the show went, everyone, cast, crew and the audience really enjoy themselves, and we managed to raise money for a much deserved charity at the same time. I would like to say a big thank you to Steve Black and Mick Hawsworth for writing and directing the production, all the cast and crew and anyone else who helped in the run up and on the night.'

Comments from the audience were of nothing but praise for the show, and the local cast were mistaken for professional vocalists by many. For more information on the One Night Only organisation please visit the website www.4onenightonly.com

Eventer Tim secures a sponsor deal

EVENTER Tim Rogers from Wyke, near Axminster, has secured a sponsorship package from accountancy group Smith & Williamson.

The sponsorship is for the 2011/2012 season and Penelope Lang, a tax director at Smith & Williamson and a bloodstock and equine accountancy expert, said: "Initially, serious interest followed spotting a photo of Tim jumping a cross country fence."

Penelope, who is a British Dressage List 1 judge, added: "In the photo he sat so well it is obvious he is a fine horseman. On further investigation it became clear he has good ability and is going places."

Together with her colleague and fellow director Peter Treadgold, Penelope studied Tim's extensive national achievements and inclusion in the world class development squad, his commitment to his chosen career and decided to support him.

Penelope added: "We wish Tim every success in the forthcoming season. If he keeps up his present form he will certainly attract world-class attention."

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

SEVENTY-FIVE runners turned up for the Yarcombe Yomp, a 10 or five-mile cross country race around stunning scenery.

Not just stunning scenery, but mud and water aplenty and proper Devon hills to contend with, this race is one of the best.

Young Andrew Watson powered around the five-mile circuit, winning in a stunning time of 36:31. Well done to James Sibley, who had a terrific run finishing second in 46:31, pipping Simon Bunday of Dawlish Coasters by seven seconds. It was good to see Sarah Vincent starting running again after having a baby; she was ninth in 57:58.

Exmouth Harriers' Mike Musgrove won the two-lap 10-mile event in 1:14:30. Nic Smith, Sidmouth RC was second in 1:16:35 and Iain Robert of Royal Navy RC third, in 1:17:29.

There was great AVR success in the ladies section, with Lin Lascelles winning, fifth overall and over-40 champion in 1:19:01. Amy Greenhalgh was second lady and second over 40, ninth overall, in 1:21:16.

Eleanor Wood was the third lady, first over 50, 19th overall in 1:29:34. Martin Lascelles was the first AVR home and the men's over 50 champion, sixth overall in 1:19:39.

Congratulations to Robin Britton who won the over-60 title, 11th overall taking 1:23:42. In his first 10-mile race Chris Driver powered off from the start, but got caught on the hills by more experienced runners, with Graham Newton just gliding up as though they were a mere slope finishing 16th, 1:27:02, just ahead of Tim Sibley in 1:27:30.

Chris eventually finished 21st, 1:32:18, one place ahead of Mark Hilder, 1:33:02. Steve Retro Reynolds put one over on his great rival Geoff Woodward. Steve was 24th, 1:33:22 and Geoff 29th, 1:36:01.

Richard Dodge was 30th, 1:36:12 and Ian Clements 32nd, 1:36:17. Sue Campbell and Adele Foxwell ran most of the way together, but Sue powered away at the end, finishing 38th, 1:38:05 and Adele 40th, 1:38:08.

Adele got married in Turkey earlier in the year and missed out on going to the Dalyan mudbaths, but the Yarcombe mud more than made up for that.

Pete Hughes usually has a good old battle with Dave Mutter and when he heard a runner creeping up on him near the race end he thought it was Dave, so powered on uphill.

He needn't have bothered as Dave was floundering in the distance. It was actually Michael Giles behind. Pete was 41st 1:40:14, Mike 43rd, 1:41:34 and Dave 47th, 1:44:45. Gill and Jon Day used the race as a training run for next year's Grizzly and ran together to round off the AVR contingent. They were joint 59th in 2:06:44.

As usual, there was a thin AVR turnout at the Ilminster 10k as it follows the Yarcombe Yomp. Plenty of runners though on a lovely sunny morning for this undulating on-road race: basically a long shallow climb to 5k then down again. Dominic Schneiders completed in 41:11, a PB for this race, and was 2nd in the over 50 category. Harry Moore had the honour of being the oldest competitor and he finished in 1:36:13.

Last Monday's club night fell on Hallowe'en, so a fancy dress run for all ages was organised.

A good fun night was had by all rounded off by a chant to Dave Kelf around his labyrinth.

Honiton U12s 21

Sidmouth U12s 21

HONITON played host to Sidmouth this weekend, giving their new kit, sponsored by Red Homes, a home airing.

The visitors scored first, though

Honiton came straight back with a try from Harry Todd.

Sidmouth went on to score two more tries. Honiton never gave up and were rewarded with two tries from Jack Katene which he converted. A great result for the Honiton boys in this tense match and no disgrace to the new shirts!!!!

Sidmouth U11s 48

Honiton Musketeers 7

Sidmouth came out comfortable winners in a local derby game. A half-time scoreline of 19-7 gave Honiton some hope, but too many missed tackles saw Sidmouth rack the points up in the second half. Plus points were the Honiton front row of Steven Thompson, Troy Abraham, hooker and man of the match Luke Bralsford, who more than matched Sidmouth up front. Honiton's try came from Jacob Wright, converted by Woollacott.

Six of the best from dominant Honiton

Torbay 2nds 0
Honiton Hornets 6

HONITON travelled to Torquay this weekend for their league match against Torbay 2nds who are currently at the bottom of the league.

Honiton started with a strong attacking formation, leaving Lorraine Ritchie, Sami Parke and Sue Stone to cover the defence.

This tactic worked well and Honiton had the majority of the possession, spending much of the half in the Torbay end of the pitch.

The forwards and halves, Sophie Keywood, Becky Hammett, Kathryn Epton and Vicky Morris, combined well to build plenty of attacks on the goal and were awarded with four goals in the first half.

The first came from Becky Bond who linked well with some quick passes from Vanessa Trude to beat the goalkeeper. The second came from Sophie George who received a pass into the circle from Amy Phillips which she was able to push between the goal keepers feet.

Vanessa Trude scored another of her own, pushing in one of many great crosses from Jean Hermiman. Just before half-time, it was Becky Bond who scored again.

The second half saw similar play and Honiton were unlucky to not be awarded a further goal from Amy Phillips. The two final goals came from Vanessa Trude who once more put in a cross from Jean Hermiman and Becky Bond who scored from a well worked short corner move. Special mention this week to Sophie Keywood who played really well in her first senior league match for the club. Player of the match was Becky Bond.

Honiton continue to practice on a Tuesday evening at Cullompton Sports Centre at 7pm until 8.30pm meeting in Honiton at 6.30pm. New members always welcome regardless of ability. For contact details please see www.wcwhl.co.uk/Public/Clubs.php.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

EIGHT Honiton Running Club members took part in Axe Valley Runners' Yarcombe Yomp.

The route is made up of a five-mile loop of mud, hills, water and fields and runners can choose to run it twice completing 10 miles or finish having completed one loop.

Mike Musgrove, of Exmouth Harriers, won the 10 mile race in a time of 1 hour, 14 minutes. Bruce Strawbridge had a brilliant race and was thrilled to finish in 4th place in 1:19 after sprinting to the finish ungallantly narrowly beating the first lady.

Steve Davey was next back in 12th place in 1:23. He also had a victorious battle at the finish line. Judy Davey was first back for the Honiton ladies in 23rd place and 1:33. Much to everyone's delight, John Burgess finished having kept upright for the entire race.

He took the downhill descents very gingerly and finished 35th in 1:37. Someone else who was delighted with her race was Olivia Higginson who managed to beat Nick Bradley-Carter for the first time. Nick, like John, isn't keen on offroad, steep downhill sections and this cost him dearly.

Olivia was 48th in 1:45 and Nick was just one place and 20 seconds behind her. Gerry Evans lives in Yarcombe and only decided to take part about an hour before the start. He originally thought he would just do the five miles but got carried away and completed 10. He was 55th in 1:55. There were 60 runners.

Tracey Strawbridge decided that one loop was enough and enjoyed her race knocking 2 minutes off last year's time. She came 11th in 1:01. There were 15 finishers.

OCTOGENARIANS' GOLF

In their 80s
but still on course

ON FRIDAY, October 21st, nine Lyme Regis Golf Club octogenarians took to the course to contest the annual Octogenarians golf competition.

Played in a friendly but but nonetheless competitive spirit, the nine holes in excellent weather and course conditions resulted in some very creditable Stableford scores.

In first place with 18 points was newly qualified octogenarian Bill Giles with 18 points. Second, on countback, with 14 points was Maurice Brown with event organiser Ray Roebuck third also with 14 points. Close behind with 13 points was Trevor Lancashire.

The club junior section staged their October Stableford event on Saturday October 29th. Despite the somewhat difficult weather conditions some excellent scores were recorded.

OTTERY Crickets Ladies first team continued their winning streak by beating Dawlish 6-1 in the league.

The Crickets had a slow start to the game, and saw themselves a goal down in the first five minutes, but they soon picked up the pace and once the first goal came, there was no stopping them.

Karen Dutton equalised with a brilliant short corner strike, and this was followed by another great strike from a quickly taken free hit just outside the 23.

The second half saw another goal for Dutton, completing her second hat-trick this season already.

Anna Bowker made some great runs up the right from the defence, and another short corner saw Nicky Bishop slip the ball past the keeper.

Maisie Pritchard had a great game in the midfield, and was rewarded with a well timed goal, and Bishop scored another to finish the tally of goals.

Crickets have scored 21 goals in their last three games, so let's hope more can be added when they play top of the league Dart at home.

Crickets train on a Tuesday evening at Colin Toozie Sport Centre, and new players are always welcome.

SHORT MAT BOWLS

SO far this season there have been more drawn matches than in previous seasons.

Continuing this trend, Beer travelled to Sidbury and shared the points.

However, the other Sidbury evening team won away from home by a 5-3 margin

No joy for the travellers in the afternoon; St Teresa's took over the leading place with an 8-0 win and a 74 shot margin, Musbury, 5-3, moved up three places to second in division 2 while Hemyock A, 6-2, and Chard B, 7-1, each gained a place to move to first and second in the newly formed Afternoon Division 3.

Sunday Amateur Winter League

IT was Sun Am Sunday, the first round of the Winter league match play pairs games.

There are points for winning, coming a close second and even for turning up as a pair.

So spare a thought for poor John Marchant who had to face his thrusting, keen opponents on his own.

Let down again by his partner on the first game of the season, he remembered the last time this happened. He lost 5 and 4 with a hole in one on the par three 4th – a thoroughly miserable morning.

This time it wasn't so bad, a 5 and 4 stuffing but with no drinks to buy. If I were John I'd get a new partner sharpish but that would be a tad difficult. Poor John's partner is the writer of this report

Tuesday Mixed

Members enjoyed the wonderful autumn weather to play an Alternative shots medal play competition. The winning pair with an excellent score of net 72 were Ro Poole playing with Laurie Tollemache. In second place were Sue Witton and Richard Pyle with a score of Nett 78. Third place went to Maureen Tollemache with Chris Poole, net 80. The mixed pairing of Poole/Tollemache and Tollemache/Poole worked well.

Ladies' Section

It's that time of year again when the winter eclectic gets underway and we either vow to do better next time out, or console ourselves that there is plenty of time for improvement.

The first round of the eclectic this year was also a non-qualifying medal competition in which Silver Division's Henrietta Bradshaw won first place with a net 78 from Jackie Seager in second also on net 78.

Bronze 1 and 2 Divisions were combined this week, seeing Linda Blundell out in first place with net 73, Gill Johnson second with a net 79 and Lesley Oxenham just beating Maureen McIvean for third place both with net 80.

HONITON NETBALL

FLAMINGOS retained their hold on the lead at the top of Division One, thanks to a successful game against Wasps.

Wasps started the night with just six players and this took its toll as Flamingos built up an 11-4 lead.

The second quarter went from bad to worse for Wasps as they lost a player due to injury and were down to five players, with Flamingos leading 21-12 at half way.

Wasps fought hard to gain a point with Sasha Williams and Nicky Field playing very well but Flamingos were in control and led 33-18 going into the final period.

With Karen Hall in good form for the league leaders it was three points for Flamingos from their 44-27 win, but Wasps had done enough to gain a point.

OPG held onto second place thanks to a comfortable win over Bo-Peeps. With Hannah Lee playing well, OPG were in control from the off with a 13-3 lead at quarter time.

OPG restricted the Peeps to three goals a quarter so that going into the final period they were 34-9 up.

With Poppy Williams doing well for Bo-Peeps they had a stronger final period, but it was not enough as OPG ran out winners by 48-16.

Uplowman met Hi Q for the second time this season and it was a close fought thing.

Uplowman took the first period 10-7, but by halfway Hi Q got a goal back with the score at 16-14 to Uplowman.

Things continued to go well for Hi Q so that going into the final period they were just a goal behind at 19-20, thanks to some good work from Sadie Moon.

The final quarter saw Uplowman up their game, with Andrea Britten rallying her side so that they finished victors by 28-22.

AXMINSTER INDOOR BOWLS

Five wins out of seven

AXMINSTER Indoor Bowls Club continued their good start to the season, winning five of the seven matches played.

The highlight was the excellent win for the men in the Devon Over 60s League against the strong Exonia Club from Exeter (83-72). The top rink was the home rink of Peter Morgan, Sid Milburn, Doug Looskan and Paul Moffitt (25-13) whilst both away rinks came away victorious – David Harris, Alan Preece, Roger Woolland and John Gough (22-19) and Phil Stephens, Tony Savage, Norman Denslow and Charlie Barber (22-20).

Unfortunately the men lost their Interclub game against Torbay (65-105) with only the home rink of David Harris, Geoff Cousins, Bob Sherborne and Paul Moffitt managing a win (22-13).

However, the men did well to beat Westlands at home in a friendly (74-26) with wins on all rinks – Tony Payne, Brian Downton, David Harris and Norman Denslow (29-5), Smiler Jenkin, Phil Stephens, Neil Solomon and Ray McDonald (24-11) and Les Monk, John Packham, Gerald Knott and Malcolm Denslow (21-10).

In the mixed friendlies, Axminster beat Chardstock at home (59-46) with wins for June Teale, Pam Clark, David Harris and Frank Lintott (21-10) and Les Monk, Ann Clayton, Marion Harris and Jean Kesterton (16-13) before beating Feniton at home (67-49) with winning rinks of Brenda Edwards, Ann Clayton, Frank Lintott and Margaret Crompton (29-11) and William Cook, George Mabon, Sid Milburn and Norman Denslow (25-14). We then beat the South-West Umpires at home (76-44) with wins for Pam Hunter, Chris Hobbs, Neil Solomon and Eric Skeemer (35-14) and Ken Quick, Jean Kesterton, Frank Lintott and Margaret Crompton (23-11). However, we narrowly lost our away match at Honiton (77-89) with a winning rink of Tony Payne, Pam Clark, David Harris and Eric Skeemer (28-23) whilst Phil Bolwell, Gerald Knott, Jim Davies and Bob Sherborne gained an honourable tie (20-20).

Division One (East)

Axminster Town 1

Totnes & Dartmouth 5

A GAME of two halves saw the Tigers relinquish a slender one-goal lead to slump to defeat.

The home side started brightly and deservedly took the lead after 30 minutes when Jamie Chamberlain fired home after good work by Nick Walsh.

The turning point of the game came in the 50th minute when Tigers' defender Lee Griffin was sent off for handball on the goal line.

John Rimmer converted the penalty to add to his 46th minute equaliser and Totnes never looked back.

Liam Linden made it 3-1 in the 70th minute as Axminster began to tire and Liam Collings and Mark Pritchard completed the scoring.

Alphington 3
Ottery St Mary 0

Ottery are still seeking their first win of the season after slipping to yet another defeat.

Being goalless at half-time gave the Otters hope that they could get something out of the game, but the home side took control after the interval.

A 50th minute penalty saw Matt Wonnacott break the deadlock from the spot and further goals came from Ryan Laverton and Nick Murray, whose deflected shot gave Otters goalkeeper Matt Slark no chance.

FRESHA DEVON AND EXETER LEAGUE

Penalty shoot-out secures Feniton next round place

FENITON were taken to extra time and penalties before overcoming North Devon side Woolery in a thrilling finale to this Firewatch Devon Senior Cup clash.

Having led the game 2-0 with 20 minutes remaining, Feniton were forced into extra time and suddenly found themselves 3-2 down until Kieran Johnson equalised with just five minutes on the clock to take the game to penalties.

"It was the first time many of our younger players have been involved in a penalty shoot-out and it was very exciting for them," said Feniton player-manager Mark Kingdon.

By KEVIN FAHEY

sport.pulmans@tindlenews.co.uk

Feniton made a great start when goalkeeper Matt Kingdon, cousin of the manger, saved the first penalty but then skipper Andy Hawkins missed his to leave the sides level.

"One of their players then missed his kick so it was left to Liam Ogborne to score the winner and make it 7-6 on penalties," added Kingdon.

"To be honest it wasn't a great game as their pitch was more like a boggy cow field but we got there in the end."

For the record, Feniton's penalty heroes were Alex Frankpiitt, Martin Swannell, Andy Hawkins, Mark

Kingdon, Rob Pfeiffer, Ben Allen and Ogborne. Ogborne and Chris Palfrey scored Feniton's other goals in normal time.

Also in the Senior Cup, Colyton raced into a two-goal lead against Topsham Town with a penalty from Callum Somers and a Nathan Maddocks header but the visitors hit back and Dan Hitchman scored the winner four minutes from the end.

"We were totally dominant early on and I thought we had them beaten," said Colyton boss Keith Somers.

Seaton Town extended their excellent form with a 5-2 win at Kingskerswell & Chelston in the Graddon Vending Devon Premier Cup.

"It was 0-0 at half-time and I had to change our formation to allow for the small pitch," said Seaton manager Josh Stunnell.

John French grabbed a hat-trick while Ben Ede and Cameron Vere completed the scoring.

Goalkeeper Dan Stapleton also made a crucial penalty save when the score was still 3-1.

Also in the Premier Cup, Beer Albion made the draw for the fourth round with a hard-earned 1-0 win at Staverton with Matt Rawson scoring the vital goal. James Melville also hit the crossbar and goalkeeper Steve Jones was in impressive form.

"I'm not sure how far we can go but it is nice to be making progress in this competition," said Beer boss Phil Crabbe.

In the Devon Intermediate Cup, Jamie Hughes scored two penalties and Joe Berry also hit the target in Axmouth Town's 3-0 win against the UAU Exeter.

"Jamie could have had five today but for the post, bar and the keeper but Christian Burridge was excellent throughout and rightly earned man of the match honours," said Axmouth boss Laurie Forino.

● The Fresha Devon & Exeter League team won 4-3 against Exmouth Town from the Peninsula League last week in a further trial for their forthcoming second round tie on November 19th against the Southern Amateur League.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

Chinnock hit 12 for sweet revenge

REVENGE was sweet for West & Middle Chinnock Reserves as they hammered Millwey Rise Reserves 12-2 in a shock result between two of the top sides in Division Three.

"It was a complete turnaround from a couple of weeks ago when they beat us 5-2 in the John Fowler Cup," said W&M Chinnock player-manager Kevin Lacey.

"I had more or less the same side but whereas we were so bad in the cup we played really well on Saturday. The lads worked really hard and played some quality football."

Striker Mark Cawley was top scorer with four goals while fellow frontman

Ash Cooper chipped in with two. Danny Rudge claimed a hat-trick, Lloyd Tucker scored twice and there was a goal for Polish centre half Matt Sidolski.

The win puts W&M Chinnock third in the table with Millwey, who clearly suffered a big off-day, fourth.

Hawkchurch United moved into fifth after a 6-2 win at Forton Rangers Reserves with Joe Carter's side racing into a 4-0 lead inside 20 minutes.

"We seem to be a bit hit and miss at the moment," admitted Carter.

Ollie Pearce scored twice with further strikes from John Legg, Gavin Herrord, Simon Harding and Stuart

Weir.

In Division Two Crewkerne Town Reserves moved back into top spot ahead of Uplyme and Chard Rangers with a 3-1 win at Dowlsh and Donyatt.

Matt Bisgrove wiped out Dowlsh's early lead before George Miles put Crewkerne ahead with a terrific free kick from 30 yards and Scott Barry added the third.

"George's goal was a screamer," purred Crewkerne manager Ben Cox.

"It was a good performance as they put us under pressure in the opening 30 minutes but once we equalised we over-ran them."

Uplyme stayed second with a 3-1 win at Crewkerne Rangers with a double from Gavin Fowler and one from Adam Neale but Rangers Reserves had no trouble in beating Uplyme Reserves in Division Four with John Lovatt grabbing five goals in a 10-0 demolition.

With Millwey Rise playing in the Devon Intermediate Cup, beating Topsham 5-0, Shepton Beauchamp and Forton Rangers both took advantage in Division One to move into first and second.

Shepton edged out struggling Ilminster Colts 1-1 with Sam Hawkins scoring the vital goal on the hour.

"We struggled for that win and if Ilminster keep playing like that they will soon be off the bottom," said Shepton boss Anthony Smith.

Forton Rangers Reserves beat Perry Street Reserves 2-0 with first-half goals from Lee Richardson and Robbie Walker.

No change in the Premier Division with unbeaten Lyme Regis staying top after beating W&M Chinnock 5-1 with goals from Steve Batey (two), Joe Bond, Julien Simier and Mark Bailey.

Jamie Spurdle and Ed Butcher scored two each and Ben Laver added the fifth in a 5-2 win for Crewkerne Town over Farway United.

Dan's the man as Petherton stage a comeback from 4-1

Perry Street League
Division Two
Chard Rangers 4
South Petherton Reserves 4

A DAN Rogers hat-trick was vital in South Petherton staging a remarkable comeback to share the points – and they almost grabbed an unlikely late winner.

Trailing 4-1 with 25 minutes remaining, Petherton manager Barry Kench made a tactical switch, moving Rogers, who had earlier given his side the lead, from the wing to centre forward.

He responded with two quick-fire goals, and Jake Russell then hit the equaliser in the 86th minute.

"We switched from 4-5-1 to 4-4-2 in the second half and Dan's pace gave them a lot of problems up front," said Kench.

"We nearly won it when Karl Diment's header was cleared off the line.

"It was a cracking game and we are still unbeaten in the league."

Defeat would have been a cruel blow to Chard after they had recovered from losing the early goal to take charge of the match with two goals from Tom Warren and one apiece from Luke Chubb, a superb long-range lob and Wayne Long.

"That was a thunderbolt of a shot from 35 yards and was the goal of the game," purred Chard manager Darren Murphy.

"Unfortunately we then had a terrible 15 minutes and allowed them back into the match.

"Overall a draw was a fair result but for us it was definitely two points dropped after leading 4-1.

"Nonetheless, we have now got more league points than we did in the whole of last season so that shows how much progress we have made."
